Artist Xing Qing Xin from China to Open Exhibition of his Works at ArtCommune Gallery

Renowned oil painter Xing Qing Xin will be the focus of a one-man show here in Singapore from October 10th – 24th. Mr. Xing will be in attendance during the show, allowing guests to meet the artist personally. The show will showcase close to 40 pieces of recent works of Mr. Xing, with various themes ranging from landscapes to flowers. Mr. Xing works in the oil on canvas medium.

Hailing from Dali County, Xi'an Province, China, artist Xing Qin Xin is known for his loving portrayals of the rural countryside. Specializing in landscapes and flowers, regionally acclaimed writer Fan Chao describes Mr. Xing's work as 'paintings {that} make the tired soul happy.' Mr. Xing was born in 1968 and graduated from Xi'An academy of fine arts. His father was a professor at the Xi'An Academy of arts, and his brother is a famous Chinese ink painter.

ArtCommune Gallery, located at 133 New Bridge Road, Chinatown Point, #02-77 will be hosting the exhibition. With its goal of being a venue where patrons, artists and art enthusiasts can interact, Artcommune is Singapore's first studio-gallery. We offer classes to those wishing to learn more about art, as well as advice on art collection as a financial investment. And our in-house artists can not only be seen at work in the gallery, but are also available to interact with clients, allowing for the creation of customized works of art.

Exhibition dates: 10th to 24th Oct 2010

Opening hours : 12 to 7 pm

Admission is free
