Ernst & Young Asean Art Outreach presents

Metamorphosis II: The pursuit of colors

by Ho Sou Ping

The Ernst & Young Asean Art Outreach series aims to promote artistic talent from the Asean region. For this series, we invite you to Ho Sou Ping's journey of color innovations grounded in Chinese painting - Metamorphosis II: The pursuit of colors.

An engineer turned artist, Sou Ping illustrates the beauty of marrying classic Chinese art with contemporary touches. In this exhibition, we see the introduction of vibrant Western mediums to the traditional monochromes, and according to the artist, is a more accurate portrayal of Singapore's culture.

Part of the proceeds from the sale of works will be contributed to charitable causes as part of Ernst & Young's corporate social responsibility program.
