

Induction Courses at artcommune

What are the courses?

- i. A General Introduction to Art Appreciation
- ii. A Story of Singapore Art
- iii. Art Collecting for Newbies

“Yes but is it art?”

Why attend our Induction Courses?

These induction courses were specially designed to facilitate a systematic and concise approach to understanding and appraising art pieces for general appreciation and collectorship.

Who should attend?

Any art enthusiasts or new collectors looking to acquire more knowledge on Singapore art and some of the most significant artists ranging from the pioneer to current generation.

Participants who attend all 3 courses will be effectively introduced to some basic means of appraising/examining artworks, followed by some fundamentals that drive the art market. New collectors will gain invaluable insights on what art collecting is all about, and be aware of some “dos and don’ts” in the process of collecting.
